The Alfa Romeo 6C SS 1750 was sent, in 1929 to Zagato where it was fitted with the two door spider body we find on it today. The Alfa Romeo 6C SS 1750 appears in the book from 1968 written by Luigi Fusi & Roy Slater, 0312861 belonging to a Mr. R. Villa from Cesatenovo, Italy. The Alfa Romeo 6C SS 1750 had VC134410 as its license plate number then.

Please take time to read the extensive history researched in book form by noted Historian Mr John De Boer in the picture gallery.

The first owner listed on the Automobile Club D'Italia is none other than the famed racing driver Achille Varsi renowned for his exploits in the Targa Florio & San Sebastian races amongst others.

This 6c Alfa Romeo 1750 Super Sport is finished in patinated red paintwork with brown hides to the seats. New tyres are fitted all round. The Alfa Romeo 6C SS 1750 is mechanically strong, running beautifully and making all the right supercharged Alfa Noises. Little used in recent years, it has been the pride and joy of a previous octogenarian owner taking pride of place in the garage of his Palazzio outside Cremona. Advancing age necessitated the sale of this Alfa Romeo 6C SS 1750 which had not been available on the market in decades to the current owner. The current owner has participated in a variety of events with the car such as Targa Florio & Mille Miglia & is now ready to move the car on to its next owner.
