This stunning MPW Spur III is in excellent condition throughout. The paintwork is finished in Aegean Blue and with no blemishes it really does look like new. The colour is broken up by just the right amount of chrome around the car; the designers certainly got it right and produced a true elegant masterpiece. The bumpers are also finished in Aegean Blue, which is a vast improvement from the previous plain rubber bumpers on the previous model.

Stepping inside (either the front or back) you are met by pure luxury, the parchment leather is piped in Aegean Blue all of which is in excellent condition and showing minimal signs of wear. The top roll and steering wheel are also trimmed in Aegean blue which brightens up the interior and creates a lovely atmosphere. The carpet throughout has also been dyed in Aegean blue, the boot is carpeted completely with parchment hide piping.

Sitting in the rear is a place of true relaxation, with the upmost comfort and privacy if required. There is a rear sunroof with a Rolls-Royce Clock just below, picnic tables, vanity mirrors, blinds, entertainment system etc etc.

The engine fires immediately with the turn of a key and almost immediately becomes silent again. Having covered a mere 19,000 miles and with a thorough service history this Spur III wants for nothing and certainly ticks all of the boxes.
